HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

Belgian King and Queen to Arrive October 27—Brilliant Weddings on Today's Calendar

KING ALBERT AND QUEEN ELIZABETH of Belgium, with Crown Prince Leopold, will arrive in Washington on Monday, October 27, instead of on October 24, as had been expected. This was confirmed at the embassy today, and it was explained that the Majesties have decided to make a second visit to New York and to spend a day in Philadelphia before visiting the Capital. It is expected that they will be in New York on Saturday, October 26, and will attend the gala performance at the Metropolitan Opera when "The Blue Bird," the masterpiece of the great Belgian poet, Maeterlinck, will be given its first production in opera form.

In view of the President's continued illness, there is a strong possibility that it may be considered advisable for the visiting royalties to stay at the White House. However, no official confirmation of rumors to this effect can be had, both the State Department and the embassy affirming that arrangements are as yet incomplete. In any case, King Albert and Queen Elizabeth will be entertained at the Belgian embassy, and in anticipation of this honor the Ambassador and Baroness de Cartier have taken the handsome residence, 1875 Massachusetts avenue, formerly the home of the Secretary of the Belgian embassy, Baroness de Cartier, and already established there after a month's stay in the home of Mrs. William J. Boardman. The new embassy building will take place at 829 G and is owned by his estate.

Leave to Attend Wedding. The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels left yesterday for Goldboro, N. C., to attend the wedding of the Secretary's niece, Miss Mary Cleaves Daniels, to Lieutenant Commander Henry Merritt, Stenhouse, Medical Corps, U. S. N. Judge Frank Arthur Daniels, father of the bride, issued the invitations and the wedding will be a large one, with a number in the wedding party, including Mr. Joseph Daniels, Jr., her cousin. The ceremony will take place at 8:30 o'clock this evening in St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church in Goldboro, and will be followed by a large reception. Mrs. Daniels made frequent visits to the Secretary and Mrs. Daniels since the beginning of the Wilson administration.

The Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Lane were the dinner guests last evening of Commander and Mrs. Randolph Minor at the Sheraton. Miss Nancy Lane, a bud of this season, recently returned from California, also was in the party.

Convention has given way to convenience, and Saturday, once considered rather bourgeois, has become the most fashionable day in the week for weddings. Today is particularly popular, there being at least a half dozen important weddings on the calendar.

Perhaps the most brilliant of the lot is the marriage of Miss Margaret Tuttle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Tuttle, to Streeter B. Flynn, formerly of Washington, but now a resident of Oklahoma City. This will take place in the Church of the Holy Trinity at 4 o'clock, with the Rev. Dr. Herbert Scott Smith, officiating, and afterward there will be a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle in LeRoy.

The church is decorated with clusters of great white chrysanthemums, palms, ferns, and autumn leaves, and the house pink chrysanthemums have been used in profusion. The pink in combination with blue will be repeated in the chic gowns of the bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Murray, of Utica, N. Y.; Miss Mary Cumming, and Miss Elizabeth Cumming, of New York; Mrs. George Almy Percy, of Cambridge; Miss Cecilia McCullum, and Miss Louisa Hoar. The bridesmaids wear long frocks, of rosebud pink tulle, made with narrow skirts and full overdresses of pink tulle and tulle. The bodices, which are made of black and high in the back, are trimmed with silver lace and touches of blue. They will wear silver slippers and hose and picture hats of taupe velvet faced with pink, and each trimmed with one great pink rose. Their flowers will be Killarney roses and blue delphiniums.

Sister To Be Maid of Honor.

Miss Margaret Tuttle will be maid of honor for her sister and will be gown like the bridesmaids except that her costume is blue, instead of pink. Her taupe picture hat is faced with blue and will carry a shower of delphiniums and sweethearts roses. The bride will be given in marriage by her father. Her gown is of soft ivory satin simply made, with the U-shaped decollete outlined with lovely Duchesse lace, which was used on her grandmother's wedding gown. The sleeves are of chiffon, and there is a long court train of the satin. Miss Tuttle will wear a full tulle veil held with orange blossoms. She will carry a shower of Vanda orchids and swainsworts.

Mr. Flynn will have his brother, Olaf Flynn, as best man, and the ushers will be Albert Ely, Jr., of New York; Harvey Brown, of Cleveland; Joseph Shanley, of Newark; Jason Easton, of La Crosse, Wis.; Richard H. Wilmer and Edwin F. A. Morgan, of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Flynn, of Chicago, are here for their son's wedding.

MME. EMIL HUGLI.

Formerly Miss Ethel Camp, of Washington, who will start back to her home in Switzerland next week after a visit here.

ding, and their daughter, Mrs. J. J. Richardson of Chicago, will also be present. Mrs. Flynn and Mrs. Tuttle will receive with the bride party. Tonight the members of Miss Tuttle's wedding party will be guests at the informal dance which Robert W. Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bell, will give at Mr. and Mrs. Bell's town house in Connecticut avenue.

Flammer-Flather Nuptials. Miss Lucy Nevins Flather, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Flather, and William H. Flammer, of New York, will also be married this afternoon, the ceremony taking place at 5 o'clock in the Church of the Covenant. And afterward there will be a small reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Flather in Eighteenth street.

The Rev. Dr. Charles Wood, rector of the Church of the Covenant, will officiate, and the bride will be given in marriage by her father, who will have a bevy of charming attendants. Miss Mary Mills, of Brookline, Mass., will be maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be Miss Kathleen Lester, Miss Elizabeth Hill, Miss Dorothy English, of Pittsburgh, and Miss Sara Nelson, of Baltimore, three of whom are classmates of the bride at Farmington.

Harold Flammer, brother of the bridegroom, will act as best man, and the ushers are to be William J. Flather, Jr., and the bride, Matthew B. Ely and Walter Neumuller, of New York, and Edward Apper, of New Jersey.

The guests from out of town who are here for this wedding are Mr. Flammer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Flammer, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Flammer, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Flammer, and Mr. and Mrs. Elly, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Neumuller, and Miss Mildred Sisson, all of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Nelson, of Baltimore, and Mrs. William H. Flammer, of Philadelphia.

Wright-Campbell Wedding. Bethlehem chapel will be the scene of an interesting wedding this afternoon when Miss Elizabeth Campbell, daughter of Congressman and Capt. Burdette Shield Wright, air service, U. S. A., will be married. The ceremony will be performed at 5 o'clock by Canon William F. DeVries, in the presence of a large company of friends and relatives. It will be followed by a reception at Windsor, the home of the bride's parents in Mt. Vernon, and near Arlington.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will be attended by her sister, Miss Dorothy Campbell, as maid-of-honor, and four bridesmaids, Miss Helen Campbell, another sister of the bride, Miss Alene Wright, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Marjorie Stebbins, of Cadenov, N. Y., and Miss Elizabeth Beach, of Rockville.

Her wedding gown is a French model of white satin made on straight lines. The bodice is trimmed with orange blossoms, and the skirt is made short. The train is long, hanging from the shoulder, and the tulle veil will be held with a spray of orange blossoms. Her shower bouquet is of bride roses.

Miss Campbell's gown is of blue tulle over silver, made with paillettes at the hips caught with sprays of flowers, and her hat is of blue tulle trimmed in silver ribbon. The bridesmaids' frocks will be fashioned like hers, but built of tulle in orchid shade, and they will all carry old-fashioned bouquets of different kinds of flowers.

The attendants for the bridegroom are all associates of his in the aviation service. Robert Paradise, who is to be best man, was a captain in the air service, and acted as Captain Wright's pilot. The ushers include Capt. Frank Hale, air service, U. S. A.; Captain Reynolds, Capt. Defreest Larner, and Major Elmer Haslett.

Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. R. A. Wright, mother of the bridegroom, will assist the bride couple in receiving the guests. Mrs. Campbell will wear a handsome gown of black net of silver and a corsage of orchids. Mrs. Wright's gown is of black satin and she will wear orchids.

A profusion of palms, chrysanthemums, and cosmos will be used as decorations throughout the house. Captain Wright and his bride will leave this evening for a short wedding trip and for the present will make their home in Washington, where Captain Shields is temporarily stationed.

Simple Home Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Frances Trenholm Capers, daughter of Mrs. John Capers, and Frederick N. Towers, which is set for 5 o'clock this afternoon will be entirely simple, owing to the recent death of the bride's father, and only members of the two families will be present. The ceremony will be performed at the home of Mrs. Capers, in B street, with the bride's uncle, the Rt. Rev.

T. W. Capers, bishop of western Texas, and the Rev. Canon Austin, rector of Trinity Church, Chevy Chase, as the officiating clergymen.

The bride, who will be unattended, will be given in marriage by her uncle, Frank Trenholm, of New York, and her cousin, Lee Trenholm, also of New York, will be best man for Mr. Towers.

Miss Capers will wear a dainty gown of white georgette crepe, untrimmed save for a garniture of georgette covered buttons, and a corsage bouquet of lavender orchids will complete her costume. Her going-away gown is of black tulle, with collar and cuffs of crisp white or-gandy, and with it she will wear a black hat faced with white and a top coat of black tulle.

The little company of guests at the wedding will include in addition to the bride's immediate family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trenholm, of New York, and Mrs. deSausseure Trenholm, of New York; Mr. Towers' grandfather and aunt, Charles Lewis and Miss Lillian Lewis and his stepfather John Hales, with Mrs. Hales. Mr. Towers is the son of Mrs. and the late David Towers, of Washington.

On their return from their wedding trip, Mr. Towers and his bride will be at home at 1330 Connecticut, where they have taken an apartment.

Preston Gibson Weds. Preston Gibson, of Washington, New York and Newport, and Mrs. Beatrice Rogers Benjamin Pratt, of New York and Newport, were married yesterday. The wedding was at 4 o'clock in Greenwich, Conn. Judge Stephen S. Telford, of the probate court, officiating. Plans had been made for the marriage to take place today at noon at the St. Regis Hotel with a little company of close friends present, but in view of the fact that the marriage was postponed to New York, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson went to New York for the wedding and Mr. Gibson was present at the ceremony.

Immediately after the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Gibson returned to New York. Mr. Gibson obtained a final decree of divorce from Alexander Dallas Bache Pratt in Newport last June. She is a graduate of the University of New York, and has been a favorite in New York Newport and Washington society. She has two children, a boy and a girl. She was married to her first husband under the terms of the divorce decree.

The marriage of Mrs. Bucklew, widow of Frederick L. Bucklew, of New Jersey, to Harold Leighton Capers, of New York, was celebrated today, at 12:30 o'clock, in the parish hall of St. John's Church. Only the relatives and a very few close friends were present, and the wedding was as simple as possible. The bride wore a gown of French blue velvet trimmed in small blue feathers. Her corsage bouquet was of orchids.

The members of the staff of the Chinese legation give a party yearly for Little Patricia Kao, daughter of the minister, Dr. Y. K. Fung, who is now in the city. The party was celebrated. There was a large cake with candles and lots of pretty favors. Among the guests were Little Patricia Kao, who is now in the city, and her mother, Mrs. Philip Kao, the former new director of the Chinese educational mission.

When Dr. Kao returns from Paris, where he has been for some months, both of his children, Little Patricia and her brother, Wellington, Jr., just a year older, will be sent back to China.

Katsujl Debut, counselor and gaffer d'affaires of the embassy of Japan, has taken an apartment at the Highlands. He has been in residence at the embassy, on K street, since his arrival, in June, and has changed to the Highlands to make ready for the arrival of his wife, Shidehara, who will arrive in Washington near the end of the month.

Capt. Geoffrey Blake, R. N., who has succeeded Capt. Arthur Snagge as naval attaché of the British embassy, and Mrs. Blake, have taken an apartment at the Wardman Park Hotel. Mrs. Blake is suffering from a slight cold, and has been ordered to take a complete rest for three weeks.

Lieut. Col. Maurice Alexander, commercial attaché of the British embassy, has gone to New York and is at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel.

Sir Arthur Whitten Brown, who made the first non-stop flight across the Atlantic in an aeroplane, and Lady Brown are at the New Willard for a few days.

Sir George Cragdon Marks, of London, is also at the Willard, having arrived yesterday from England.

Mrs. Isaac Pearson entertained at luncheon yesterday in compliment to Mrs. Lewis, wife of Judge Ernest W. Lewis, of Phoenix, Ariz. Judge Lewis is here to try a case before the United States Supreme Court, and with Mrs. Lewis is staying at the Willard. Mrs. Lewis is a sister of Mrs. William Atherton DuPuy.

The Rev. C. Herbert Reed, who has been named rector of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, Philadelphia, will preach at Grace Church, Ninth and D streets, tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. This is one of the

Go to Church Tomorrow

New Era Institute To Open November 3

The New Era Institute, a religious conference embracing special courses in Bible study, Christian fundamentals, home and foreign mission study books, and methods of junior work, will be held November 3 to 7 in the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church.

These institutes have become an annual feature of local Presbyterian work and are eagerly looked forward to by those who have been fortunate enough to attend the previous conferences—four of which have been held. Each succeeding institute is planned on a larger scale than the one preceding, and the enrollment has shown a rapid increase. They have been largely responsible for the generous contributions and great missionary interest which have been so marked among many of the Presbyterian churches of Washington, and it is the aim of the committee in charge of the present institute to have several representatives from each local Presbyterian church, and at least one delegate from each organization whose work is chiefly within the scope of the courses offered.

The institute will be under the auspices of a joint committee representing the women's missionary societies, the Sunday school, the young women's societies, and the Christian Endeavor societies of the presbytery of Washington. The officers of the executive committee and the committee in charge are as follows:

General chairman, Mrs. W. L. Garby; vice chairman, Mrs. Harvey S. Irwin; secretary, Miss Florence Steinbrenner; treasurer, Mrs. W. W. Spauld; chairman program committee, Mrs. Wallace Radcliffe; chairman dinner committee, Mrs. C. O. Goodpasture; chairman entertainment committee, Miss Florence Steinbrenner, and chairman publicity committee, Albert T. St. Clair.

Soul in the evening. He will also preach at 11 o'clock. William S. Culbertson will address the Men's Sunday school class at 9 o'clock. The "Challenge of the Revolutionists." "Doctrine of Atonement" will be the sermon topic at the following Christian Science churches: First Church, Columbia Road and Euclid Street; Second Church, Northwest Washington Temple; Third Church, Masonic Temple Fourth Church, the Arcade.

Dr. W. Leon Tucker, of New York, will deliver the evening lecture at Immanuel Baptist Church on "The Book of Revelation." The lecture will be at 11 a. m., 3, and 8 p. m. respectively.

Dr. John Robertson, the soldier preacher of Glasgow, Scotland, will deliver his last sermon in this city at the First Baptist Church, on the morning and evening services.

Canon Russell will preach at 11 o'clock at the Cathedral, and the sermon at the people's evening at 4 o'clock, will be delivered by Canon De Vries.

The Rev. John D. Hallmond, of New York, will preach at 11 o'clock at the Foundry M. E. Church, and the Rev. John R. Edwards will deliver the evening sermon.

At All Souls' Church, the Rev. Dr. Samuel A. Eliot will preach the morning sermon. At the meeting of the Second Baptist Church, on the evening, Mrs. Margarita Spaulding Gerry will read an original story.

Special revival services at the Temple Baptist Church will be conducted by the Rev. H. I. Stewart, pastor of the Second Baptist Church. He will preach on "The Story of My Life" in the morning, and the Rev. J. J. Muir, pastor, will have for his evening sermon topic "Prisoners With a Message."

At the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Dr. Wallace Radcliffe will preach at both services, his evening subject being: "What the Carpenter Says Today."

At the morning service of the Potomac Baptist Church, the Rev. Paul P. Langhorne will preach on "Christ Still Leads," and will deliver an illustrated talk for children.

The Rev. John C. Copenhaver will preach on "The Dilemma" at the morning service of the Mt. Pleasant M. E. Church, and in the evening on "The Lord Who Saved Seventeen Lives."

Revival services are being held at the Centennial Baptist Church. The Rev. E. H. Swem is being assisted by the Rev. Owen P. Lloyd, the Virginia evangelist, who will preach at the morning service.

The Rev. J. Herbert Reese, pastor-elect of St. Matthew's Church, in Philadelphia, will preach at Grace Episcopal Church in the morning. He will relate his experiences as an army chaplain while overseas.

Revival meetings will continue at the Fifth Baptist Church. The Rev. John E. Briggs will preach on "The Song of the Trumpet" in the evening.

"When Is a Young Woman Justified in Breaking Her Marriage Engagement?" will be the evening sermon topic of the Rev. Howard I. Stewart, of the Second Baptist Church.

Congressman Simon D. Fess, of Ohio, will deliver an address to the Sunday school of the Lutheran Church of the Reformation at 9:30 a. m., when the school will hold its annual rally.

The Rev. W. A. Eisenberger, associate religious work director of the Y. M. C. A., will preach Sunday morning at the Mt. Rainier Christian Church, at 11 o'clock. The Rev. W. P. Blake will speak at the evening service.

The Sunday morning service at the H Street Christian Church will be in charge of Charles K. Hoover, associate educational director of the Y. M. C. A., and James L. Wilfeth will speak at the evening service.

At the Church of the Covenant and the Rev. Dr. Charles Wood will preach on "The Battlefields of France" and of the

Music, Handmaiden of Religion

By L. W. DE GAST.

Much activity on the part of the religious publishing houses of the country is an indication that music and song will feature the religious services for the year.

Music has ever been a vital part of church activities as of the world's life in general. In war and peace man has moved forward and upward to the accompanying strains of music. Our army in the last war was known as the singing army, and it is beyond question that music was a great factor in the relief of heartache and loneliness in our training camps and helped brighten many a corner in the trenches.

Evangelists are unanimous in their testimony and appreciation of the power of song in moving the hearts of men. They are agreed that salvation has been sung into the hearts of more than it has been reasoned into their heads. In fact, everywhere in every sphere of life music has been the great motive force that has brightened the lives of men and added joy and happiness to the world's life.

It is fitting, therefore, that music and song rightly chosen and well rendered should form a large share of the church's activities for this year. But it should not be forgotten that:

"... while you join in thanksgiving, With voices in thankful accord, Remember He watches your living, And sing with your lives to the Lord."

PASTOR WILL TELL HOW TO CLIMB LADDER OF LIFE

The Grace Reformed Church, in Fifteenth street near Rhode Island avenue northwest, will have a service at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning, when the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Henry H. Ranck, expects to begin a course of sermons on "The Patriarch Jacob," or "Climbing the Ladder of Life."

Sunday school will open at 9:40 a. m.

BAPTIST MASS MEETING PLANNED TUESDAY NIGHT

There will be a mass meeting of all the Baptist churches composing the Columbia Association of Baptist Churches in Cavalry Baptist Church Tuesday night, at 7:45 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. S. H. Greene will preside and Percy S. Foster will lead the singing.

The meeting is to be inspirational in character. Speakers of national reputation will tell the part Baptists must play in the period of reconstruction. Among them is the Rev. Dr. L. Broughton, a favorite at Northfield Bible conference.
